Without prejudice to the generality of para 1) to 3) above, the Bank may make disclosures of event/information as may be specified by the SEBI from time to time.

This policy doesn't intend to dilute any requirement specified under the SEBI Listing Regulations.

4) PERSONS RESPONSIBLE FOR DISCLOSURE

The Board has authorized the KMPs to determine the materiality of an event or information and to make appropriate disclosure on a timely basis. The KMPs are also empowered to seek appropriate counsel or guidance, as and when necessary, from other internal or external stakeholders as they may deem fit.

The KMPs shall have the following powers and responsibilities for determining the material events or information and to carry out the disclosures pursuant applicable regulations, as amended from time to time:

- a. To review and assess an event or information that may qualify as ‘material’ and may require disclosure, on the basis of facts and circumstances prevailing at a given point of time.
- b. To determine the appropriate time at which the disclosures are to be made to the stock exchanges based on an assessment of actual time of occurrence of an event or information.
- c. To disclose developments that are material in nature on a regular basis, till such time the event or information is resolved/closed, with relevant explanations.
- d. To consider such other events or information that may require disclosure to be made to the stock exchanges which are not explicitly defined in the Listing Regulations and determine the materiality, appropriate time and contents of disclosure for such matters.

5) GUIDELINES FOR ASSESSING MATERIALITY

Materiality will be determined on a case to case basis depending on the facts and the circumstances pertaining to the event or information.

The Bank shall consider the following criteria for determination of materiality of events/ information:

- (a) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- (b) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
- (c) the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
  - (1) 2% (two percent) of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Bank;
  - (2) 2% (two percent) of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Bank, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
  - (3) 5% (five percent) of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Bank;
- (d) In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) is not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of the Bank, the event or information is considered material.

If a particular Event / Information satisfies any of the above Qualitative criteria or Quantitative threshold, the Bank shall disclose the same to the Stock Exchanges.

- (e) Any other event as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.

6) OBLIGATIONS OF INTERNAL STAKEHOLDERS AND KMPs FOR DISCLOSURE

Any member of the senior management team who by virtue of their position or designation may have access to any event or information, including the information forming part of Annexure-1 and Annexure-2 to this Policy, which in their view qualify as material and prompting any necessary disclosures to the stock exchange in compliance with the Listing Regulations are entitled to reach the authorized KMPs of the Bank with adequate supporting data / information, to facilitate a prompt and appropriate disclosure to the stock exchanges.

The KMPs will then ascertain the materiality of such event(s) or information based on the above guidelines.

On completion of the assessment, the KMPs shall, if required, make appropriate disclosures to the stock exchanges.

7) REVIEW AND REVISION

This Policy shall be reviewed by the Board on Annual basis or as and when any regulatory or statutory changes affecting the content of the Policy. KMPs may review the policy from time to time and may make ratification subject to approval of the Board in the next Board meeting.
