

GOWDA TEARS INTO SIDDU OVER JDS EXISTENCE REMARKS

No Congress leader can finish off the regional party politically in Karnataka, says JDS supremo

B R UDAYA KUMAR @Mosalehosahalli

JDS supremo H D Deve Gowda tore into Chief Minister Siddaramaiah for questioning the existence of JDS and said the regional party which is in alliance with the BJP will teach the Ahinda leader a lesson in the upcoming Lok Sabha election.

Addressing JDS workers at Mosalehosahalli in Holenarasipur taluk of Hassan district on Sunday, Gowda said it is not possible for Siddaramaiah or any Congress leader to finish off the JDS politically.

"Siddaramaiah seems to have forgotten that the JDS provided him the steps to grow in politics. There will come a time when JDS leaders will ask the existence of Congress in the nation soon. The party is having presence only in a few states and Karnataka is one among them," he added.

Gowda also said a powerful Congress leader is allegedly collecting the revenue of whole Bengaluru and the money is being spent in neighbouring states to fund party's election campaigns.

Bandisiddegowda regrets remarks on HDK's health

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mandya

A day after a veiled jibe at former chief minister HD Kumaraswamy over his health, Congress MLA representing Srirangapatna Ramesh Babu Bandisiddegowda has expressed his regret over his remark.

Bandisiddegowda had expressed doubts over the recent heart surgery of the JDS leader who is the NDAs choice for the Mandya Lok Sabha constituency, during a party event at Malavalli. The Congress MLA had stated that Kumaraswamy will get himself admitted to a hospital during the elections thereby expressing doubt over the heart procedure.

As his controversial remark upset the party high command, Bandisiddegowda, during an event at Arakere village in Srirangapatna taluk on Sunday, expressed regret and said: "I made the remarks on Kumaraswamy's health out of concern over his health and not in bad faith. So, I regret but not apologise for my remark. I appeal to everyone not to continue the issue further. I have never spoken anything bad about the personal issues of former prime minister H D Deve Gowda or Kumaraswamy. As I was in JDS and had good rapport with the family, I expressed my concern over Kumaraswamy's health," he said.

Stating that he had never expressed doubt over the heart surgery, Bandisiddegowda said the controversy is created by the media. Meanwhile, Kumaraswamy visited Sri Adichunchanagiri Mutt in Nagamangala taluk and held special puja to deity Kalabairaveshwara on Sunday morning.

He visited the mutt before launching his election campaign in the constituency. The special puja was performed by mutt seer Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji.

JDS alliance with BJP will strengthen fascist forces, says Dalit activist

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

VETERAN Dalit activist Guruprasad Keragodu said JDS leader H D Kumaraswamy joining hands with the BJP is a dangerous trend that will further strengthen fascist forces.

He said Prime Minister Narendra Modi's victory in Varanasi and H D Kumaraswamy in Mandya are the same. Kumaraswamy has joined hands to support the dictatorial attitude of Modi who has surrendered the nation's interest to the corporates.

Addressing DSS office-bearers at Kanaka Bhavan, Guruprasad said it's a last attempt to save the democracy. He feared that the return of Modi to office for the third straight term would pose a threat to democracy and Constitution.

"The country should not become one more Afghanistan where the Taliban has taken over infringing the rights of the women and children. The dictatorial attitude of Modi would push the people into trouble," he said.

Talking about the 10-year rule of the Modi sarkar, he said the prime minister, in his first term, crushed human rights and gave the control of the economy to the corporates while in his second term, all the public sector undertakings were privatised. "Now the Ambanis and Adanis indirectly control the government," he added.

Fearing that Modi will turn into Hitler, Guruprasad said veteran human rights activists were jailed for standing up against the government.

Guruprasad said that the DSS that had supported the Congress during the assembly elections will continue to back the Grand Old Party in the Lok Sabha elections as well.
